

Chiltern Wood School Parents' Wellbeing Charter

This charter has been drawn up with the following principles in mind:

- Take care of yourself
- Take care of others
- Take care of this school

Everyone within the school community has a responsibility to consider the impact s/he makes on themselves, others, and the school environment, through the decisions they make.

Parents have the right to ...

- Peace of mind that their child is being kept safe and that wellbeing is the school's highest priority
- Clear communication about what their child will be learning over the coming half term or term
- Clear communication about what their child has learned through the home school diary and reports, including photos to 'paint a picture' of life at school
- Face to face meetings as often as practical
- Opportunities to discuss their child through termly parents' evenings, an annual review and as often as necessary informally through phone calls

Parents are responsible for ...

- Being an active partner in communication with school, responding to messages in the home school diary or via Dojo
- Attending parents' evenings
- Attending professionals' appointments to get the most expert advice for the children and young people
- Communicating any significant changes to staff
- Following school policy with regard to sickness and absence
